

Fone Logistics aims at north eastern area

FONE Logistics has pulled together a crack team of experts tasked with addressing the North East market for converged comms.

The Cramlington-based mobile airtime and handset distributor is housing Activtelecom, a reseller arm under the leadership of new Managing Director Derek Hurst.

Activtelecom will be offering a range of real-time access to business information and full connectivity to business networks and servers.

Fone Logistics' Managing Director, Ian Gillespie commented: "This new team will help grow the business in the region."